RE: Outstanding High School Senior Award / Scholarship

Dear Senior Awards & Scholarships Coordinator:

The Philadelphia Engineering Foundation, in conjunction with the Delaware Valley Engineers Week Committee of the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia, is seeking applications for the Outstanding High School Student Award as part of the celebration of Delaware Valley Engineers Week.

The Outstanding High School Students in the Delaware Valley* will receive a $1,000 award and will be recognized at the Delaware Valley Engineers Week Awards Reception on Thursday, February 22, 2018. See www.dvewc.org for more information on this year's events, as well as last year's celebrations.

We encourage you to make the enclosed two-page application available to your seniors considering majoring in engineering. The application is also available as a pdf fillable form at www.dvewc.org/awards/.

We'd also like to make you aware of a resource for information about engineering, www.DiscoverEngPhila.org, to which you can direct students and/or parents. We are still working to provide more content and engineering-related programs for students, but it is a resource to which you can return to find more information.

If you have any questions on this award, please contact me.

Sincerely,

The programs are sponsored by a collation of engineering societies, government agencies, universities, and major corporations representing thousands of engineers. Engineers Week is a strong venue to inform our citizens of the value of engineers, celebrate engineering technology and innovation, and cultivate interest in math, science and engineering among the nation's youth - tomorrow's work force.
